Cook's Linoleum Regular Price 29 75c square yd.

What housewife doesn't know about Cook's Linoleum? It is a household word-as famous in its way as "sterling" on a piece of silverware.

Tomorrow we place on sile 100 pieces of the genuine Cook's Linoleum—the heavy weight printed grade in 8-quarter width—at 35c per square yard—a price never before associated with this celebrated make of Linoleum.

In a large assortment of light and dark colorings, representing Parquette flooring, tiling, and mosaic designs; also large and small figures and floral patterns.

These are not "remnants"—but full pieces, as you can buy as much or as little as you like.

Lace Curtains, 59c ea.

Qualities Sold as From $3.00 to $8.00 a Pair

We have just completed a purchase of the mill's entire stock of "sample strips" or half pairs of fine quality Lace Curtains, which we place on sale tomorrow at a price astonishingly low. Every housekeeper can find plenty of uses for these half pairs of Curtains. Merely by the way of suggestion—it may be suggested that they can be utilized for scarfs, sash curtains, transoms, splashers and draperies—and the cost is so trifling that few women can resist the opportunity to brighten up the home.

They consist of finest grade English Nottingham. Scotch Lace and Cable Net Curtains, each one is full 3½ yards long and 54 inches wide. In white, ivory, cream, ecru and Arabian shades.

These have all been used as "samples" by the mill agents—and represent the season's choicest designs in copies of Tambour, Irish Point, Brussels Net, Rennaisance, Cluny, Antique and Colonial styles. In plain centers with heavy borders, figured all-over and motif center patterns.
